In establishing at this place a public journal, he interest of the proprietors unite with their vishes to devote its columns; first, to the advancenent of the prosperity of our town and county nd to those interests which our growing impor- quired of the purchaser ince, healthful situation and fertility of soil at

To render our paper deserving of patronage, no pains will be spared on our part to adapt our elections of general intelligence, to the tastes of Il classes of readers. To this end our columns vill be open to the free discussion of all subjects f public or general interest, which have no tenency to personal altercation, and are charactersed by a proper respect for public opinion. We hall untiringly devote our exertions to promote nd advance the interest of our own State, and to and ensured not to break, if well used. nduce her by a proper developement and applicaion of her mighty resources to assume among her sister States that rank which nature has so larishly granted her the means to sustain.

In regard to our politics, although it is not de-rigned that the BANNER shall be strictly a party paper, by which we at present understand the prostitution of the public press to indiscriminate buse of its opponents in politics, and the vulgar and indecent denunciations of those who differ with it in opinion-yet still it will be our determiaction, by all proper and legitimate arguments by respectful appeals, and by the utmost cogency of fair and honorable reasonings of which our imaginations are capable, to advance the interests of that party with which circumstances has iden tified us, and with which, we believe, are identified the best interests and prosperity of our country. By a firm, manly and respectful bearing, we shall endeavor to deserve the respect of our political opponents if we do not succeed in convincing them; at all events by such a course we shall be cordially received, and may hap win a smile from partial beauty, around the domestic hearth, from whence vituperation and abuse would justly ex-

Admiring as we do, the simplicity and purity of he measures, which, during the administration of tome and respected abroad-we shall zealously ppose those profligate expenditures of the public noney which have characterised the present Administration, and together with its adopted system of rewards for its votaries, and punishments for ts opponents, is calculated to shake the manly irmness of the representatives of the people, to orrupt the public morals, and prostrate at the fee executive power and influence, the freedom nd purity of the elective franchise. The rapid xtension of the executive patronage, and the lans and experiments of the party in power to ncrease and perpetuate it, will receive at our ands a decided opposition.

To guard against the machinations of the enenies of our domestic institutions, and to expose nd lash with a liberal hand, the time-serving syophancy and degrading party spirit of their se-art allies, who would willingly sacrifice us for heir own aggrandisement, shall constitute no orinary portion of our labours, and we will not reret such an employment of our time, if it will dd one iota to the security and safety of our be-

NORTH MISSISSIPPIAN.

The "NORTH MISSISSIPPIAN" is designed g be strictly a News Paper, and will be deoted to every subject which may be deemed f use or interest to its readers. The rices of produce at New Orleans, Comnerce, &c., the condition of the money marcet in every section of the country; politics, iterature, and the fostering support and deelopment of the resources of its own imular attention in its columns

It is not intended that the "North Missis

dippian shall be a partizan paper; but, under acred and important duties, none should nave luke-warm or neutral feelings in regard o the public policy of the country, nor have ve; and our views upon political, as well as ther subjects, will be freely expressed whenver we may deem it necessary-and it will e done in the spirit which best accords with our feelings of temperance and courtesy. We might here give our views in detail, but ve deem it unnecessary, and will only state hat we differ with the present administraion of the General Government upon some of its most important measures, and have opposed in the last election, the elevation of He having been 19 years in the business in of Mr. Van Buren to the seat he now occunies; and, in the humble part we may herefter feel ourselves called upon to take in practice, we shall appose his re-election. Having devoted about four years of our life to the duties of an editor, we flatter ourelves that we are not altogether unqualified or the task that will devolve upon us. We shall use every exertion to render our paper quired. worthy of public patronage, and trust that not a sylable will ever be found in its coumns calculated to wound the feelings of he gentleman whatever his political predelections may be.
